Transfer of Certain Asst Commissioners

General and Revenue Secretariat | File No. 3 of 1934 | [App. F. III—2

Serial No.

Letter No. C. 2298/34-35 dated 3rd Dec. 1934 from the Rev. Com. forwarding alternative suggestions regarding transfer & postings of certain Asst. Comrs.

The Rev. Com. has sent up alternate proposals to fill up the following 2 vacancies

(i) Due to grant of one months leave from 2.1.35 to Mr George Matthan, Hassan Sub

(ii) Due to an additional post of Asst. Co proposed to be given to the G.R.S.

2. The second alternative mentioned by him does not appear to be feasible as it involves the withdrawal of Mr. V. Madhava Rao from the Accounts Dept and the posting of Mr. T. Venkataraugam in his place to the Accounts Dept. Mr. T. Venkataraugam has not had Accounts training and so is not eligible for occupying a regular charge of Asst. Comptroller (vacated by Mr V. Madhava until he is kept as an extra office under training for a year or more. There are already two Asst. Comrs under training in the Comptrollers office Messrs. P. Suryanarayana Setty & V.S. Hiriamma and one of them is intended to be posted to a regular charge as soon as he completes training. There is already a Civil Service vacancy (due to Mr K.G. Dutt's transfer) in the Accounts Dept. temporarily held by ~~a~~ a non-C.S. Officer pending one of the civil service officers completing training. In the circumstances, Mr. T. Venkatarangam may have to be posted as a third extra officer under training if he is immediately sent there.

3. The first alternative suggested by the Revenue Commissioner is :-

(i) Mr G.V. Nagarajarao Spl. Asst to Secrett. : On relief by Mr G
(ii) " George Matthan Mysore Hassan Asst to Spl Asst to Mysore. : On relief
(iii) " C.K. Challappa Iyer (Amilda) to Hassan

According to these arrangements Mr C.K. Challappa Iyer will ~~join Mr G Matthan~~ take Mr. Matthan's place from 2.1.35 and continue thereafter. ~~in the meantime~~ ~~per~~ The additional officer will join the Secretariat about the middle of February 1935.

[The selection of Mr Challappa Iyer as Asst Comr. is separately under cir. to Council. The question of an addl officer for Secrett. is also before Council.]

His Highness' approval has been received to the posting of an additional Assistant Secretary to the Secretariat.

The proposal to appoint Mr. C.K. Challappa Iyer as acting Asst. Commr. in the next vacancy has also been submitted to H.H. for approval.

The proposals in this file ~~may therefore~~, perhaps be taken up for consideration now. An officer has to be posted to Hassan Sub Div. from 2-1-1935. ~~Accordingly~~ As already submitted in the notes above, the II alternative suggested by the Rev. Comr. presents some difficulty as a new officer ~~cannot~~ posted to the Comptroller's office can replace one of the trained men to be withdrawn

I have spoken to the Comptroller. He said he would post Mr. Sankara Narayana (Retd E.) to the Ry. audit & relieve Mr. Madhavarao. Mr. Venkataramanam will have more training. I dare say he will soon see the purpose of Mr. Narayanan's, after the present order of transfer is issued.

(20/12/34) Mr Madhavarao having been in the Accounts Dept for 5 years there is no objection to his being taken back. As regards Mr Sivayanarayana chetti, it would be better that he undergoes some more training before he is put in regular charge of a responsible Section. I send from the Civil List that Mr. Venkata Ramanan is 43 years old and has had no previous experience in the accounts deptt – It would ordinarily be difficult for him to pick up the technical work of that office. I would therefore suggest that in lieu of him a younger officer who has had previous experience of the accounts deptt may be sent.

20/12/34

I would respectfully suggest that the arrangement already approved by the Govt may be given effect to. After all Mr. Venkatarangam (i/c of 43 & 56) is able to pick up the work of the Comptroller's office. In fact his experience should stand him in good ead.

However, after arrangements are ordered Quite necessary, the Comptroller is willing to train Mr. G. N. Nagaraja Rao who may be posted to the Comptroller's office for training.

Please take this to the Comptroller for favour of making two or three selections of Gazetted officers -

Three names are suggested

(1) K. Srinivasan, S.D.O. Manipuri 28.9.32.
(2) G.N. Nagaraja, Deputy Tahsildar 2.5.33
(3) K. Md. Ahmed, S.D.O. (Agl.) Shimoga 7.1.34.

The Comptroller's proposals are for orders. Mr. C.K. Challappa Iyer will have to be posted to ~~one of~~ the charges vacated by the officer finally selected for the Comptroller's office.

In any event, so long as Mr. P. Suryanarayana Setti remains unabsorbed, the number of officers under training in the C.O. will be raised from 2 to 3 involving extra cost for a time

With reference to Government Orders transferring me to Bangalore, I beg to place before you the following facts for your kind consideration.

I have personally represented my difficulties in the way of my coming to Bangalore to the First Member of Council. While I am quite ready to obey orders of Government, I request that I may be transferred to any place other than Bangalore since the inconveniences referred to will, I am afraid, tell seriously on the quality of my work in Bangalore.

I hope that my request will meet with very favourable consideration.
